Treasure hunts through arte, history and music in Florence

Legamidarte offers to its associates an excellent and in-depth alternative to the usual walking tours of the city involving them in a visit with the format of a "treasure hunt" including a series of clues, questions and images of various artistic details, providing the participants with a new way to discover the most famous monuments and the lesser-known artistic details, showing them the hidden gems, the curious and unusual aspects of the city, while bringing to life the fascinating history of Florence. This makes the visit of the city an enjoyable and fun experience, suitable for both adults and children. At each stage, the participants are given in-depth information on the work of art in question, together with some directions/clues to identify the next one, until they reach the final destination, where the treasure is going to wait for them which is in tune with the spirit of the Association Legamidarte: a fusion of figurative arts and music. Each treasure hunt is dedicated to a different period of the history of Florence.
